Bio

Will wants an app to help with his studies. He gets distracted easily by other websites and wants a way to block the websites in order to remove the distraction and improve his efficiency in studying. He also struggles to stay on top of work as he doesn't have a good way of planning his day to day.

The screenshot displays the GitLab web interface for a repository named 'team23-22'. The left sidebar contains navigation links for Project information, Repository, Files, Commits (selected), Branches, Tags, Contributors, Graph, Compare, Issues (4), Merge requests (0), CI/CD, Security & Compliance, Deployments, Packages and registries, Infrastructure, Monitor, Analytics, and a Collapse sidebar button. The main content area shows the commit details for 'Commit 7b50ec24' authored by 'Matthew Goulding'. The commit message is 'Updated my name to the README'. Below the message, it shows the parent commit '5c9d72be' on the 'main' branch and indicates that no related merge requests were found. A pipeline status shows 'Pipeline #1021 pending with stages'. The 'Changes' section shows 'Showing 1 changed file' with '1 addition' and '1 deletion'. The file 'README.md' is shown with a diff view, highlighting changes to the 'Developed by' section. The diff shows a deletion of 'Madesar Shah , Zijun Li for the team project' and an addition of 'Madesar Shah , Zijun Li , Matt Goulding for the team project'. The bottom of the diff shows the footer text: 'This application was generated using JHipster 7.9.3, you can find documentation and help at'.
